

Application Information

1. How to apply

a. Step 1 – Fill in the Application Form

Fill in the Applicant Details section. The Applicant must be a Southland resident to be eligible to receive this grant. If applicable, also fill in the Parent/Guardian of Applicants under 18 years of age section. Take this completed part of the form to your school/college or tertiary/work-based learning (WBL) provider for them to complete the Student/Apprentice Details section, and then return to you.

Note: If on an apprenticeship or similar, the authorised personnel/staff member would be an employee of the work-based learning provider, e.g., BCITO, Careerforce, Competenz, Connexis, HITO, MITO, Primary ITO, Service IQ, NZMACITO, Skills, Skills Active.

b. Step 2 – Fill in the Whakapapa Information Form

Fill in the whakapapa information form for your Rakiura Māori Kaumatua, including their name and numbers. Whakapapa information also needs to be completed, and in full, from the Applicant to their great-great-great grandparent/s; refer to the notes regarding whakapapa. Once completed, fill in and sign the Declaration.

c. Step 3 – Write your Essay

Write an essay on the set topic and of appropriate length. This essay needs to be an original piece of writing. Also, answer the added question with either Yes or No.

d. Step 4 – Send the completed form with all relevant documentation

Send your completed application form (including this page) and all other documentation to the address as given at the top of the Application Form. All applications need to be received, in hardcopy, by the end of the closing date, Tuesday, 30 September 2025.

2. What you need to provide

Your completed application form needs to include all of the following:

- ☐ Checked/ticked application information and checklist page
- ☐ Completed Application Form
 - ☐ Student/Apprentice Details section completed and signed by an authorised personnel/staff member from the school/college or tertiary/work-based learning provider, as per note above in 1a.
- ☐ Whakapapa Information Page
 - ☐ Completed in full and signed at the bottom
- ☐ Copy of your birth certificate
- ☐ Essay on 2025 Topic, including answering the Yes or No question
- ☐ Bank account verification (from your Bank)
- ☐ Trustees Signatures Page

Failure to comply with complete form filling and relevant documentation could result in your application not being actioned and/or delay in processing. Applications received after the closing date will not be accepted.
